Purpose of this Hackathon

The purpose of this ideation hackathon is to encourage best young brains in the country to,

- o Present original ideas on waste utilization, process modifications/ upgradations, engineering solutions, technical advancement, etc. for waste to wealth transformation.
- o Identify valuable resources and products that exist in waste streams and present specialized/ innovative / multidimensional solutions for its utilization, create value in supply chains and explore/ create additional market.

This Hackathon is focused on boosting young intellectuals to apply their reasoning and problem solving aptitude in conjunction with technical skills to solve real world waste related challenges at grassroot level. It will help them to build upon their understanding on waste management, emerge with clearer thoughts and present innovative solutions for Waste to Wealth conversion.